

The Water Advisory Body (the WAB) Social Media House Rules & Comments Policy

The following house rules and comments policy applies to all WAB managed accounts and are designed to make engagements with our accounts an enjoyable and safe experience.

All comments, images, videos and any other type of material posted by followers on social media while interacting with the WAB or our other managed accounts do not necessarily reflect the opinions or ideas of the WAB or its members and secretariat nor does the WAB confirm their accuracy. The WAB is not responsible for any such content. In any event, all material posted on these pages must comply with terms of use as dictated by the relevant social media platform.

All rights, including copyright, on the WAB's profiles are owned by or licensed to the WAB or our stakeholders. Any use of these pages or their content, including copying or storing them in whole or in part, other than for your own personal, non-commercial use, is prohibited without the written permission of the WAB.

Third party adverts on or surrounding the social pages or accounts are not the responsibility of, or endorsed, by the WAB.

Specifically, we do not tolerate the following:

- Posts of an abusive or threatening nature or using offensive or vulgar language
- Posts of a defamatory or potentially defamatory nature
- Trolling or deliberate disruption of discussion
- Violations of any intellectual property rights
- Spamming
- Uploading files that contain viruses or programs that could damage the operation of other people's computers
- Commercial solicitation or solicitation of donations

We reserve the right to remove any posts or comments that do not adhere to these house rules or to the terms of use as defined by relevant social media platforms. We ask that you post content that is respectful and relevant to the work of the WAB.

Please note, we do not take complaints nor deal with any corporate matters through our social media channels. If you would like to report an issue, please visit our website at www.wateradvisorybody.ie for contact details.
